125+ physician specialties

Our third annual Physician Compensation and Production Survey provides valuable insight regarding clinical and total cash compensation paid, productivity, and pay practices for employed physicians, as well as market trends in physician compensation.

SURVEY FEATURES

- Data on more than 125 physician specialties found in the market
- Comprehensive source for physician compensation data
- Data reported nationally and regionally
- Data on total cash compensation, including pay practices (e.g., call pay, production and quality incentives, medical director and administrative pay, APC supervision), compensation philosophy, and governance practices
